Who should register?

*All Representatives may attend, regardless of position

*Regional Sales Managers who want to be certified to train Trainer Coaches (TC) and earn $80 for each TC trained.

Initial, Re-Certification, Audit, or Re-Attend?

- Initial Certification ($200): A Representative who has reached the level of Regional Sales Manager (RSM) or higher, is currently a Trainer Coach, and would like to become a Certified Regional Trainer should register as an Initial Certification. Once the Representative meeting those criteria has completed the training, they can train Trainer Coaches and earn $80.00 for each Trainer Coach they train. CRTs will not be certified to train until they fully qualify as an RSM.
- Re-Certification ($100): A Representative who has reached the level of RSM or higher, has already become initially certified as a regional trainer, and wants to continue to train should register as a Re-Certification. Please do not attempt to re-certify more than one month in advance of your re-certification month.
- Audit ($50): Any Representative who has not yet attained the level of RSM or does not want to receive credit for the school they are attending should register as an Audit. A Representative who registers as an audit will be given the opportunity to upgrade to the Initial Certification within 60 days of the school if they meet the requirements to become a CRT. (Payment Schedule to Upgrade: 1-30 days following the school is $150; 31-60 days following the school is $200). Any Canadian Representatives wishing to attend a CRT School should also register as an Audit.
- Re-Attend ($20): A Representative who is registering for a CRT School and has attended a school within a year from the date of the school, for which they are registering, is eligible to register as a Re-Attend. The original school attended must have been for Initial or Re-Certification training only. Those who have audited a class within a year are not eligible for the re-attend.
