

FHTM Sends Needed Supplies to Alabama

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Lexington, KY, May 31, 2011 – Fortune Hi-Tech Marketing, Inc. joined with Two Girls and a Van, to send new and gently used items to the victims of the devastating 2011 tornados. Two Girls and a Van is a private charitable endeavor, formed to benefit Tuscaloosa, Alabama residents.

“Our thoughts and prayers continue for all the victims of these disasters,” said FHTM President and Founder Paul Orberson. “We hope this truck load of supplies will bring some relief to the stricken area.”

FHTM employees volunteered their time to load a sixteen foot moving truck with donated food, blankets, toys and household supplies. Items were brought in by nearby residents and businesses to FHTM Headquarters. Two Girls and a Van organized the shipping of the supplies and partnered with Tuscaloosa relief efforts to distribute the needed provisions.

About FHTM

FHTM is an international direct selling company that provides Independent Representatives with the opportunity to build their own business, while selling products and services. Founded by Paul Orberson in 2001, FHTM also serves Canada, the United Kingdom and Puerto Rico. FHTM is headquartered in Lexington, KY.

Media Contact

Brian Wright

Public Relations Coordinator

Phone: 859.422.7015 catastrophes

Fax: 859.422.7024

bwright@fhtm.net

www.FHTM.net

###